

TULSA BUILDER SELECTED FOR MEMBERSHIP IN SOUTHERN LIVING CUSTOM BUILDER PROGRAM

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.- Tulsa, OK builder Matt Means of LandMark Resources LLC has been selected for membership in the Southern Living Custom Builder Program.

LandMark Resources LLC is the exclusive Southern Living Custom Builder member in Tulsa, OK. Each year, Southern Living carefully selects members based on their reputation among local businesses and consumers; strength of presence in their respective markets; superior quality and attention to detail; innovative style; and other criteria. Builders also have access to the entire Southern Living House Plans Service collection, which includes more than 800 plans created by respected architects and designers throughout the nation.

"The builder program is a natural extension of our overall homes effort, which aims at offering quality designs and new ideas to consumers across the Southeast," said Brent Warren, Manager of the Southern Living Builder Program. "We believe we have chosen outstanding builders, like LandMark Resources, to help us do this."

Matt Means has worked in custom home construction for more than five years and is a Certified Graduate Builder (CGB) and a Certified Green Professional (CGP) by the National Association of Home Builders. LandMark Resources LLC is a family business, which specializes in homes from $400,000 to $2,000,000 primarily in the Jenks and Bixby public school districts. LandMark Remodeling offers an alternative to new construction, while LandMark Commercial Contractors assists entrepreneurs and long-standing businesses in their building and growth endeavors. A native of Jenks, OK, Matt received a bachelor's degree in marketing from Oklahoma State University.
